

Order of the Night

“Holy, Holy, Holy, is the LORD of armies. The whole earth is full of His glory.” – Isaiah 6:3 (NASB)

This is a sacred time set apart to glorify God, celebrate His goodness, and seek His presence. Tonight, we lay aside titles, ministries, and roles to focus solely on ministering to the Lord. Below is the Order of the Night—a guide to help us worship with freedom, reverence, and unity.

1. Lay It All at the Door – Come simply as worshipers, setting aside titles and roles to minister to the Lord.
2. Worship with Freedom and Humility – Express your love for God through singing, dancing, or silence, but always with reverence.
3. Sing with Abandon – Lift your voice in song, letting the Spirit lead your worship.
4. Be Led by the Spirit – Allow the Holy Spirit to move freely, guiding our worship and intercession.
5. Honor the Spirit and One Another – Worship boldly but with humility, ensuring an atmosphere of unity.
6. Pray as the Lord Leads – Let intercession rise as we seek His presence and His will.
7. Come and Go as the Lord Leads – Enter and exit with reverence, ensuring the atmosphere of worship remains undisturbed.
8. Seek God’s Presence Above All Else – Let every act of worship tonight be for His glory alone.

Come expectant. Come hungry. Come ready to encounter the presence of God.

So, if the Son makes you free, then you are unquestionably free. John 8:36

Beloved, the Lord is calling.

His voice is like the sound of many waters, drawing His people near. Do not delay—come and worship, not with lips alone, but with a heart wholly surrendered. True worship is not measured by words or raised hands but by a life laid down at His feet. The Father seeks those who will worship in spirit and in truth.

Will you answer the call?

- Abraham laid down his son. Will you lay down all that you hold dear, trusting Him as your provider?
- Moses would not move without His presence. Will you seek His face above all?
- David danced before the Lord. Will you worship with all your might, free from the fear of man?
- Mary poured out her alabaster jar. Will you pour out your life in love for Him?
- Hannah gave her son to the Lord. Will you entrust Him with your deepest desires?
- The wise men traveled far to bow before the King. Will you pursue Him, no matter the cost?
- Job worshiped through suffering. Will you lift your voice in praise, even in the midnight hour?
- The woman with the issue of blood pressed through the crowd. Will you push past every barrier to touch the hem of His garment?
- John fell as though dead before Yeshua's glory. Will you humble yourself and acknowledge His majesty?

Come, beloved. The King is here, for He inhabits the praises of His people. Let go of every weight that entangles you. Worship Him, not as the world does, but as those who see His throne and tremble. Bow low, for He is holy. Lift your voice, for He is worthy. Let your life be an offering before Him, a fragrance that rises to His throne.

Do you hear the call?

The time is now. Come and worship the Lord!
